This block contains a collection of various abstract, organic shapes and patterns. At the top left, there is a large, curved, elongated shape. Below it, on the left, is a small, rectangular shape with a central indentation. To the right of this is a long, thin, curved shape. Further down, there are several elongated, pointed shapes, some with internal textures or patterns. A dashed line runs diagonally across the middle of the block. The overall style is minimalist and graphic, with a focus on organic forms and textures.
